

Andy Calitz is the Secretary General Elect of the International Gas Union. Currently he is engaged with the Global Energy Supply Transition Journey, based in London.

He started his working career with Eskom, the South African electricity utility. He joined Shell in 1996 where he was actively involved in the alliances with Gazprom and CNOOC and SINOPEC, in Liquefied Natural Gas shipping, in Sakhalin Energy in Russia, in the Australian Gorgon LNG project, in New Business Development, and in LNG Canada.

He was educated as an Electrical Engineer at the University of Stellenbosch in South Africa, with further qualifications in Commerce, Management and Business Administration at the Harvard Business School and University of the Witwatersrand, University of South Africa and Insead.

He has lived in Cape Town, Johannesburg, Boston, London, Lima, Moscow, Beijing, Tokyo, Sakhalin, Perth, The Hague and Vancouver. He has traveled to 99 countries on business and private visits. He is a member of The Royal Institute of International Affairs, and a fellow of the Royal Geographic Society.